"IN THIS CORNER—"

The presidential challenger, Thomas E. Dewey of New York, together with his able second, Governor John Bricker of Ohio, has climbed into the national political ring. The present "champion," President Roosevelt, is expected to follow in mid-July. Then the quadrennial battle for the political heavyweight championship of America will get under way in earnest.

Observers agree that the GOP nominees are the most experienced and "ring-wise" opponents Roosevelt has yet confronted. Both have won their present standing by coming up through the political training grounds of districts, cities and states. Dewey punched his way to the top in New York state in 1942 after losing a close decision in 1938, thus becoming the first Republican governor of the Empire State in many years.

Bricker scored a political knockout in Ohio by being elected three times to the governorship. He was considered a certainty to be elected again but withdrew to enter the national political arena.

Indications are that Dewey will do considerably less "foot work" in the coming presidential match than was done by Mr. Roosevelt's opponents in 1936 and 1940. It is said that the New York governor will not make more than half a dozen major speeches—each in a different section of the country. Apparently Dewey intends to throw fewer, but heavier, punches in his bid for the "title."

Both challenger and champion appear in top form for the contest. May the best man win!

CHINA'S SEVEN YEARS

July 7, 1944 is the "triple seven" for China—the seventh day of the seventh month of the year marking the end of seven years of her struggle for survival against Japan.

Back in 1937, the Japs picked up where they had left off temporarily in their earlier attack on China, and set out to "woo" the Chinese into the greater Asia "co-prosperity sphere."

Aside from limited Russian aid and the help of a few American flyers, Chiang Kai Shek and his people were left to fight not only alone, but virtually barehanded. They had to fight directly against Japan and indirectly against the world, since we, and other nations, thought it "good business" to sell war supplies to Tokyo.

With incredible courage and determination the Chinese have fought on against the invaders and against famines, floods and plagues. When we finally entered the war in 1941 it was too late to get effective aid to them.

Now on the seventh anniversary of her life and death struggle, China was never in a more desperate plight. Ravaged by war, weakened by hunger, harassed by wild inflation, China stands on the brink of doom. And the Japs are driving hard for a complete collapse of Chinese resistance.

Admiral Nimitz has promised to strike through to the China coast at the earliest possible moment. But can the Chinese hold out until he gets there? And if they do, will they have the strength to fight toward the coast to support such a landing?

The accumulation of seven unspeakable years of death and destruction are bearing down relentlessly on China. Her resistance this far has been a miracle. We can only hope by some further miracle she will yet survive.

BASTILLE DAY

Bastille Day comes this week, July 14, to a nazi-ridden France.

There and in America many freedom-loving Frenchmen pray that the Army of Liberation, fighting now on the soil of France, soon will restore liberty and independence to that fallen nation.

There is a lesson for all good Americans in the plight of France. The seeds of disunity already had taken root before the nazi invaders moved into France four years ago.

Traitors within the country, fearing for their own power more than they feared the nazis, conspired to destroy the nation's unity. The enemy's divide and conquer propaganda soon flowed unchecked throughout the land.

Factionalism multiplied within political parties. Jealousies and dissension mounted in business and labor circles. Anti-Semitism—Jew-baiting—always the first and foremost weapon of the nazis, rose ominously in France. Deceived, corrupted and torn apart, the French were betrayed by their own leaders.

When Hitler dropped the shams of "un-occupied" France, the people recognized what it meant to live under the heel of the "master race." But today, French men and women, of the French Army of the underground, have found their faith again.

This cycle, violent and cruel in France, has been apparent elsewhere. In some respects we have passed through it here in America. Fascism never gained the saddle in our country but others succumbed to its advance agents—hates and prejudices, Jew-baiting, labor baiting and all the rest.

It is for us, inspired by the Army of Liberation, to realize as the French people have, that we must stand together as partners in winning the free world. We must resist hate and religious prejudices as weapons intended to destroy us.

Ask For Forty To Volunteer As Grey Ladies

An urgent call for forty women to volunteer their services as Grey Ladies in the American Red Cross Hospital and Recreation corps was issued today by Mrs. L. I. Scott, chairman of the Volunteer Special Services of the San Mateo County chapter, American Red Cross, for Mrs. Richard Heimann, chairman of the Hospital and Recreation corps for the local chapter.

The success of the Hospital and Recreation corps depends on the volunteers themselves, but their abilities and personalities must be directed into the proper channels by training before they can give their best possible service. Their trained service for fullest effectiveness, must, in turn be fitted to need, and these women are needed for the Naval Dispensary at the United States Navy Advance Base Personnel depot at Tanforan to do the many necessary things for the boys who are confined to the hospital there. They will distribute books and magazines, read to the boys, play games with them, mail their packages, plus the many other little things that go to making their convalescence more pleasant.

To qualify for this Hospital and Recreation corps, a woman must be between the ages of 21 and 50, must apply at the Volunteer Special Services headquarters of the American Red Cross, East Santa Inez and El Camino in San Mateo, or telephone San Mateo 4-2533 for an application to be mailed; and following an interview with Mrs. Heimann must take a course of four lectures and an examination. The lectures will be given Tuesday, July 18; Thursday, July 20; Tuesday, July 25, and Thursday, July 27. Special arrangements will be made by Mrs. Heimann to interview out-of-town applicants.

MAE WEST—is U. S. war slang descriptive of a tank with two turrets; also a life preserver worn high under the armpits. Millions of us won't ride tanks or cross the ocean so we must do our part on the home front and buy War Bonds to the limit to back the attack of our invasion forces.

Ice Cream At Home

Perhaps you cannot purchase as much ice cream at the corner store as you did before the war, but that does not necessitate an ice cream shortage in your home.

After all, the art of making ice cream did not pass out with grandmother's old crank freezer. In fact, modern refrigeration has probably doubled or tripled the amount of this delicacy prepared at home. Today, old crank freezers are being oiled and used, while electric refrigerators are humming a tune as they freeze trays of ice cream for the evening meal.

An ordinary household rennet tablet, some light (yes, light) cream, a little sugar, water and vanilla — that's all you need to try the modern recipe below.

Homemade Vanilla Ice Cream
(Automatic Refrigerator)

- 1 rennet tablet
- 1 tablespoon cold water
- 2 cups light cream
- ½ cup sugar
- 1¼ teaspoons vanilla

- Dissolve rennet tablet by crushing in cold water.
- Mix light cream, sugar and vanilla. Warm slowly, stirring constantly. When COMFORTABLY WARM, (110° F.) not hot, remove at once from heat.
- Add dissolved rennet tablet and stir quickly for a few seconds only. Pour at once, while still liquid, into refrigerator tray. Let stand at room temperature until set — about 10 minutes.
- Place in freezing compartment. Freeze until firm. Remove from tray to a bowl, break up with a fork and beat with electric or rotary beater until free from hard lumps but still a thick mush. Finish freezing.

Easy Ways to Quench Thirst

ON A HOT JULY day, everybody feels like tipping up a whole bucketful of cool thirst-quencher! But there are simpler and far more interesting ways to do it. For instance:

Iced Tea and Iced Coffee—the important things to remember, of course, are that both tea and coffee must be brewed in double strength, and should be freshly made, if you want good flavor when they're iced.

Orange Egg Milk Shake is satisfying and easy to make: combine 1½ cups each of chilled orange juice and milk in a shaker or mason-type glass jar; add 1 egg (slightly beaten), 3 tbsps. sugar and 1 tsp. grated orange rind; put lid on jar and shake well.

For Children, make "Singing Sam Sticks" by pouring fruit-flavor carbonated beverage into refrigerator freezing tray; after about 1 hour's freezing, insert wooden meat skewer into each cube and continue freezing until solid; serve as lollipops.

Coffee Cool is delicious for dessert, or with a midday sandwich: half-fill tall glass with shaved ice; add scoop vanilla ice cream, and fill nearly to top with steaming hot coffee; stir until smooth and frothy.

Creole Punch is a good name for this one: Pour 1¼ cups of orange juice over a generous scoop of chocolate or vanilla ice cream or any flavored sherbet, and forget how hot the weather is!

Or Try shaking together ¾ cup of grape juice, ½ cup of grapefruit juice and 1 unbeaten egg white till smooth and frothy. Serve over ice.

Make Ice last longer in punch bowls by using it in a single large piece, rather than in many small ones, so there'll be less surface to melt away. Incidentally, the punch will stay full-strength longer.

* * *

However you do it, have plenty of thirst-quenchers on hand for your family these July days—helps to keep them healthy and happy!

BEDSIDE ENTERTAINMENT BY USO-CAMP SHOWS CHEERS OUR WOUNDED VETERANS

Marcy McGuire, cyclonic stage and screen headliner, "keeps 'em laughing" as she sings to T-Sgt. Maynard H. Norwood, now convalescing in Letterman General Hospital, San Francisco, from battle wounds received in New Guinea. USO-Camp Shows, financed through War Chest contributions, brings top-flight entertainment to wounded servicemen with its new Purple Heart Circuit.

Troupers of "Purple Heart Circuit" Boost Fighters' Morale

Uncle Sam's boys who have been wounded in action are getting top-flight entertainment right at their bedsides.

Under the recently inaugurated Purple Heart Circuit of USO-Camp Shows, entertainment ranging from classical concert to vaudevilles is being staged in Army and Navy hospitals from coast to coast, bringing sparkling new programs at least once every two weeks.

Featuring headliners of stage, screen and radio, shows are staged in wards for bed patients as well as in recreation halls where ambulatory cases can gather.

USO-Camp Shows, which is financed by War Chests throughout the nation, is a branch of United Service Organizations. Operating the largest theatrical circuit in history, Camp Shows sends star performers to world-wide combat zones as well as to bases within the United States.

DESIGNING GENIUS literally gleams in the electric blue double-faced satin gown created by New York's Zoe de Salle for CBS singer Dorothy ("Cresta Blanca Carnival") Shay. The victoire cut yoke continues over the shoulders to form a shining front panel. Top-tied lacing of self material accentuates the nipped-in waist, and dull side panels stress the "long look" below dolman sleeves. A matching cabbage-rose hat completes the costume.

Open Telephone Center, July 10

A new Telephone Center for servicemen was opened at the U. S. Naval Drydock at Hunters Point, July 10, by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company. Designed for the convenience of men who wish to make local or long distance telephone calls, the new center is one of a total of 38 provided by the telephone company in military and naval establishments in the Northern California area.

The new Telephone Center will be complete with lounging chairs, magazines, writing materials and other appointments to provide for the comfort of servicemen. A directory library will be available for Pacific coast and other points. Attendants will be on duty to assist men with their calls and to provide information.

In announcing the opening, Lyle M. Brown, division manager for the telephone company, spoke particularly of the helpful cooperation of the Navy personnel in working out the plans and allocating the space for the installation of equipment.

Meat IS OUR Business

Although we're modest by nature, we will admit to being experts where meat is concerned. We've spent a long time and had a lot of experience in the handling and cutting of meats. Why not let us help you solve your family's meat problems?

During the summer vacation period, our market will remain closed on Mondays, each week.
